Creative Crafts is a year-long course (1.0) that focuses on the Creative Arts. The Elements and Principles of Art and Design will guide students as they create a variety of functional and decorative projects. Basic concepts in drawing, painting, sculpture and collage will begin the school year. Students will build upon their knowledge and apply skills to a variety of crafts, including paper arts, fiber arts, a variety of sculpture and ceramic clay. Throughout the course, students will work through color theory, perspective and learn about a variety of artists and cultural influences.

Class Expectations:

- Students are expected to be on time, in regular attendance and prepared for class.
- Students are to complete each art project on time and in accordance with the project guidelines and rubrics. (see Google Classroom).
- No Food or Drink is allowed in the art studio without permission.
- Cell Phones are to be “off and away” as per the CCSD’s Code of Conduct.
- Chromebooks should be charged and ready to use.
- All students are required to be part of the Google Classroom and to know how to upload images and information to assignments posted.
- All students are expected to follow the Rules of the Studio..
- The art studio is a community. Being respectful to ourselves, each other and the art work created is an important piece of the collective artistic process.

Grading:

Quarterly Grade Average:

90% Art Projects
10% Participation

Final Course Average:

90% Quarter 4 Grade
10% Final Project

Rules of the Studio:

- All cell phones are “off and away” as per the CCSD’s Code of Conduct.
- Be on time, in attendance and prepared for class.
- Be respectful of yourself and others.
- Limit Disruptions During Instruction Time
- Stay seated and work quietly and productively at the table.
- Show tolerance for others and constraint for negative behavior.
- Care for all art materials with respect and safety.

Behavior:

If a student does not follow the Class Expectations or the Rules of the Studio, the consequence procedure is as follows:

- Classroom warning.
- Notification to parent/guardian.
- Lunch Detention/Afterschool Detention
- Administrative Referral
 - If a student is removed from class, Mrs. Dianis reserves the right to bypass the above steps and write a referral. Parents will be notified

Safety:

Safety is a priority in the Art Studio. We will be using a variety of art materials that require responsibility and maturity, such as Exacto knives, glue guns and construction tools. It is extremely important that everyone be respectful of the art tools and materials. Demonstrations on proper usage will support student knowledge.

TO BE SIGNED BY STUDENT AND PARENT/GUARDIAN.

A RETURNED, SIGNED COURSE POLICY WILL COUNT AS ONE PARTICIPATION GRADE.

This is to acknowledge that I have read, understood and will abide by the Class Expectations, Rules of the Studio, Behavior and Safety guidelines stated above in the CCHS Art Department’s Creative Crafts class with Mrs. Dianis.

I will treat the school equipment and art studio space with care and respect.
At the end of the course, I will return any borrowed supplies in good condition.
