January 2024

Dear CCHS Students and Parents/Guardians:

Cornwall Central High School will have an adjusted schedule for the January Midterm/Finals Week from January 22, to January 26, 2024.

On the Midterm/Final Exam testing days classes will not be in session, students will only come to school if they have an assigned Midterm/Final Exam.

We believe that to better prepare our students for the New York State Regents Exams, as well as other standardized tests, such as the Advanced Placement exams, we must give them an opportunity to simulate these testing conditions, which includes taking a midterm that is the approximate length of a Regents and AP Exam. In doing so, our hope is that our students will be more prepared, comfortable, and confident heading into these assessments in the future.

We will be running Midterm/Final Exams during the week of January 22nd-January 26th. The Midterm/Final Exams being run are aligned to our courses that end in a Regents Exam or AP Exam in May/June 2024. Each of these Midterm/Final Exams is approximately two hours in length.

On Midterm Testing Days, transportation will be provided to and from school for both the morning and afternoon testing sessions. The Midterm/Final Exam and transportation schedule is attached to this letter. In addition, teachers will share with students if they are slated to sit for a Midterm/Final Exam during these testing days.

Any student in our Community Based Instruction (CBI) program will attend full days of school as they normally do. CTEC is open and running during Midterm/Finals week and students are expected to attend CTEC. CCHS will be providing transportation to and from CTEC as usual. If CTEC students have an exam conflict, arrangements will be made to allow students to attend CTEC and still take their exams.

Thank you for your continued cooperation as we strive to best support our students’s academic success.

Sincerely,

Kathryn Wilhelm, Principal

CCHS INBOUND BUS SCHEDULE for PM MIDTERM EXAMS - JANUARY 2024

Students scheduled to come in for an AM Exam will wait as they normally would in the morning for the bus. Students scheduled for the 11:30 EXAM should be at their regular bus stop for the times listed. Times are approximate; please be at the stop at the time listed so that students do not miss their bus. Please be aware buses will leave the high school around 10:15 AM and will begin to drop off and pick up. Do not leave your bus stop as buses are in route and may not be on time.

Please note that the Outbound AM testing students will exit the bus prior to PM Inbound students loading. Any student with both an AM and PM exam on the same day should ride the morning bus; they will not go home in between exams, food will be available. Please speak to your bus driver if you have any additional questions about timing.
